viet yum

The trend towards cookbooks that offer cultural insight as well as recipes has produced another beautiful tome in Koto: a culinary journey through Vietnam. There are two bonus factors with Koto. Bonus one: all royalties go to the eponymous restaurant in Vietnam that trains disadvantaged youths for careers in hospitality. Bonus two: chef and author Tracey Lister will demonstrate her favourite dishes at Black Pearl Epicure in The Valley on October 23. The RRP for the book is $49.95 and the cost for the cooking class is $140 – bookings are essential.
