Come to see a brilliant, explosive and magical Australian family adventure

BARKING GECKO Theatre Company in association with Perth International Arts Festival and Sydney Festival present at The Regal Theatre, Subiaco, from the 19 February to 1 March, 2009 at 7pm Tuesday to Saturday with 11am and 1.30pm performances on 21 and 28 February and Sunday 1 March, The Nargun and the Stars by Erth Visual and Physical, produced by Performing Lines.

The Nargun and the Stars will delight families and young people with giant puppets, fantastic flying creatures and inflatables from EARTH's innovative designers.

The magical world of Patricia Wrightson's much-loved novel, adapted by Verity Laughton, comes to life on stage in a stunning visual feast, combining these large-scale puppets, live actors, and digital animation.

The production tells the story of Simon, an orphan who arrives at his cousins' remote farm, and the Nargun - a huge, living rock from the beginning of time, woken from an age-old sleep.

The farm is a place of ancient secrets inhabited by amazing Indigenous mythical creatures. Simon soon meets Potkoo-rook (the land's water creature), the Turongs (tree people) and the Nyols (rock people), and finds himself in a life and death struggle with the terrifying Nargun.

Tickets are from $30-$45, Child (under 14) $20.

Bookings: 6488 5555 or barkinggecko.com.au

Suitable for eight year olds plus... and families.
