March 3, 2009 - 8:09AM

Tonight and tomorrow night ARIA winner Geoffrey Gurrumul Yunupingu will play at Beck's Music Box.

A former member of Yothu Yindi and now with Saltwater Band, singer-songwriter Gurrumul's debut solo album was acclaimed by The Sydney Morning Herald and his sound dubbed 'the greatest voice this continent has ever recorded'.

Singing powerful songs in his native Yolgnu, Gurrumul blends folk, gospel and roots with traditional songs from north-east Arnhem Land.

Joined on stage by his band featuring acoustic guitar, double bass and violin, Gurrumul's beautiful voice and gifted musicianship make this intimate concert one to see.
