PIAF FILM SEASON

Shall We Kiss? ★★★★★

Emmanuel Mouret, the heir to Eric Rohmer and a near-relative of Woody Allen, has followed up his PIAF favourite Change of Address with this typically witty, wry romantic soufflé about best friends (played by Mouret and Virginie Ledoyen) who make the decision to become lovers not for amorous reasons but simply for sexual relief — or so they keep telling themselves. This is the most French of this year's PIAF French line-up, so be prepared for talk, talk, talk, a little lovemaking and more talk. At the Somerville Auditorium tonight and tomorrow night at 8.30. It then moves to the Joondalup Pines for two week.
